

Learners should leave the programme feeling empowered, confident, connected with others and well-equipped to effectively lead a workforce with the right values to provide high quality person-centred care. We've received overwhelming feedback from managers about the difference it can make.

Who offers it?

This learning programme is exclusively available from a number of Skills for Care's endorsed learning providers.

Is there funding available?

Yes, adult social care employers in England can claim up to £500 per staff member on completion of Well-led. Read more about Skills for Care's Workforce Development Fund here.

How long does it take?

The four modules are usually delivered over a four-month period, enabling the learning from each module to be put into practice between sessions.

The programme can be delivered flexibly over four days of normal business working hours, or eight half days, or a different pattern appropriate to delivery choice and/or audience.

Learners are expected to attend each of the four learning and development modules that make up the programme and will only be able to receive a certificate of completion if they have participated in all four modules. There may also be an option to engage in inter-sessional tasks and engagement with other resources provided on the programme.

What others say

Without attending this programme I would never have been able to describe myself as a leader, I feel good being able to say this. Your programme has empowered me, challenged me and made me a better person.

Never have I undertaken a programme that has given such practical examples of how to get the best from my team.
